Hi Officer,

I agree with the Cambridge Avenue extension project.

The best part of Glenfield is that it has a lot of separate low houses, we could see the blue sky, kids could play around in the backyard, parks and enjoy the nature.

It's good to develop and do some change to the Railway Parade road, but please keep the Belmont Road in Glenfield the same as before and not increase the stories. I don't see the benefit of living in the area with a lot of high rise buildings, not enough sunlight, kids could only play in the balcony, especially when the park is surrounded by high rise buildings, there is only 3-4 hours sunlight in the park. We don't like high rise buildings, that's why we don't live close to CBD but to live in Glenfield which is a peaceful and relaxed suburb. You won't feel very relaxed to sit down in the park or home or backyard and can't see the sky but only the high rise buildings. Quality of lifestyle is also very important for this neighborhood.

Thank you very much for your time and consideration.

Kind Regards,

██████
