Submission: I have lived in then Kemp's creek area for 30 years ,paid for the land and house with hard earned money, as I understand you will need green space I ask as a land owner that we are paid as my neighbors across the road are we have worked hard raised our three children and this is not free land to be taken away from us or to be underpaid, if you can't afford to pay us you can't afford to built the airport [REDACTED]

[REDACTED], taking my land will put me over the edge this has caused me stress that is uncalled for this is my children home that you are trying to take please not that after all the rain we had there was no flooding ,i thank you for your time.M Hill
