this rezoning is going to drastically affect what we can do and currently do with our property. also, what does this do to the resale value of our property? no one will be wanting to buy our property under this new zoning.

The stress of not knowing what is going on and the anxiety this is causing is immeasurable. we have been at our property for more than 30 years and nobody has consulted us on the zoning.

why should property directly opposite on the northern rd be worth twice as much? it is unacceptable.
