I am [REDACTED] years old and am under a huge amount of stress and anxiety regarding the development of the South Creek section. Not only have the flood lines been moved without notification (I have lived here for [REDACTED] and not once has it flooded) but now we have to wait for years before you make up your minds regarding the plans. This has put a lot of people in limbo with politicians not wanting to help. What are they going to do with all the birds that appear at 4pm every day too? The govt needs to stop dallying, keep us informed and I don't mean by finding out information through the TV news and let us get on with our lives.
