The DCP rules for Rosebery are ridiculous. So much wasted, inefficient space results in poor quality housing design. The rules also make it very difficult for a normal double garage.

I'm not sure if anyone in the department of planning has been to Rosebery?

Council trying to force people to do what they want, when the ship has sailed and the suburb has changed dramatically from the olden days, is just plain wrong.

The temporary exclusions are not worthy of occurring.

Please just let things continue to operate as they do, and do not OK these changes.

Kind Regards,
