Hi

Pyrmont is a harbourside suburb, with no equal. Yet what it lacks is taking full advantage of the wonderful swimming opportunities of the harbour.

Harbourside swimming areas provide a unique place for communities to come together and enjoy the beauty of Sydney Harbour, places such as Neilson Park and Redleaf are the best examples.

If Pyrmont is to fully utilize it's potential, all future plans must include safe harbour swimming areas.

Historically the Pyrmont Baths provided a wonderful community facility for locals to swim in the harbour. Rebuilding this facility would be a bonus.
