I strongly object to the proposed landowners contributions fees for the Western Sydney Aerotropolis. The airport is for everyone who wants to use it so every person should contribute. Between Federal, State and Local governments the landowner is being royally screwed over. You all want a piece of the pie for nothing expecting the landowner to roll over and expect it. This is Australia not CCP China but we are having serious doubts as to where we now live. You want the land you pay for it.

I agree to the above statement

Yes
