Attention State Government. Customer service.

I am forwarding our letter to our local mayor of Fairfield, Frank Carbone. 9/11/2020

We are very concerned about the negative impact on our property values should these new planning rules go ahead.

With respect

Leonie and William Toohey.

Dear Mr Mayor

We appreciate your letter informing us of the proposed new planning rules in our area.

We are confident in your leadership and if there is anyway we can lend our individual objections, please advise us of how we can do that.

Thank you for your wonderful leadership and continual dedication to those of us whose age inhibits us from being of assistance in rally's . We can ,however write letters and sign partitions .

Our home is our entire wealth and this proposal would impact negatively on our property values.

Like most of us from 70 onward we live conservative lifestyles in order to remain in our homes as pensioners.

Our motivation to do so is to one day ,when we pass ,to hand our property on to our children.

This is such an ever changing world and we don't know when adversity will strike us or our children. Our home is our only financial protection between us and the grave. We hope it will provide some security for our next generations. The value of our home is the sum financial total of both my husband and my life's work .

Thank you for advocating on our behalf

Thank you for the amazing development ,for family life, you have moved on since you have been in office.

My husband and I have lived in Abbotsbury for the past 31 years.

We made our home here and we want to stay.

Thank you for your attention in this matter

Kindest regards

Mr W Toohey & Mrs L.S.R. Toohey
