Dear Sir/Madam

My name is Peter Maday, my family & I live in Kemps Creek in the so called environmental green space.

All land owners are suffering from stress and mental anguish of this so called green space.

Can the Department of planning answer who will be responsible for the mental health of the land owners and their families captured in green space/environmental zones?

We are forced to stay prisoners on our properties for an undisclosed period of time. This is against the basic human rights of people to get on with life that is available to the rest of Australia. Seems like we live in a dictatorship not in a democracy.

Since the new zoning, our life has been nothing but tragically sad. We are elderly and have lived on this property since 1968. We expect answers and to be treated fairly and humanely.

We cannot go on living in limbo.

Yours sincerely

Peter Maday & family.
